Office of the Chief Financial Officer

Mission Statement

The mission of the Office of the Chief Financial Officer is to provide the City of San Diego the highest quality public services in the areas of financial reporting, auditing, management, and stewardship of the City assets, thereby continually enhancing the quality of life for all our citizens.

Department Description

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) is the umbrella department under which all financial departments of the City are organized. The department staff includes the Chief Financial Officer, Director of Corporate Partnership Program, and Director of Major Gifts/Planned Giving.

The Department of Finance oversees all of the City's financial activities. The following departments report to the Chief Financial Officer: City Auditor and Comptroller, Debt Management, Financial Management, Risk Management and Safety, and the City Treasurer.

The Office of the CFO is responsible for maintaining the financial records of the City, the development of the City's financial statements, internal and external audit functions, preparing annual budgets, developing debt financing proposals for borrowing funds, managing the City's investments, revenue collection and tracking, and long range financial planning.

This department also oversees the Corporate Partnership Program and the Major Gifts and Philanthropy Planning Program.

Service Efforts and Accomplishments

In Fiscal Year 2007 the department:

- Released the City's Fiscal Year 2003 and 2004 Comprehensive Annual Financial Report
- Refinanced PETCO Park Bonds
- Released the City's first Five-Year Financial Outlook
- Secured financings for Water and Metropolitan Wastewater
- Drafted new reserve and debt policies
